As we go to press the mail steamer from San Francisco is off the port.

FAIR AT WATALUA .- We notice by advertisement that there will be a fair and exhibition at the Female Seminary at Waialua, on this Island, on the 20th of December next. The object is a worthy FIRE AT MAKAWAO .- By the Kilauea we hear that Messrs. Alexander & Co. have lost about sixty acres of growing cane by a fire at Makawao. A severe loss, taken in connection with the existing drought. FROM THE VOLCANOES .- Captain Hatfield, of the schooner Uilama, which vessel arrived from Kona and Kau yesterday, reports that the light from the erater of Mokuaweoweo was apparently increasing

MURDERER CONVICTED .- The man Kuheleaumoku, convicted of the murder of an old man and weman at Walehu, Maui, last March, was brought down from Labaina yesterday on the Nettie Merrill, and taken to the prison, there to await the day fixed for his execution, which is the 25th day of March next.

SUPPLEMENT .- We present our patrons with a seven column supplement to-day, containing a full account of the Volcanoes, and also a very interesting article from the Friend, descriptive of the old ladies' tea party in this city. The present will be a good number to send to friends abroad.

NAVAL .- The U. S. S. Resaca, Nathaniel Green, commander, 9 guns and 130 men, arrived on Satur day last, 30 days from Apia, Navigator Islands. The only item of interest that we glean by this arrival is to the effect that the different chiefs of the group were involved in petty wars.

COAL ON FIRE.-On Sunday afternoon last, a slight smoke arising from the pile of coal on the steamer wharf indicated the presence of fire. Mr. John Tibbitts, fire warden of the district, was promptly on hand and got a hose on to the spot with BENEFIT.-Madame Marie Duret takes a benefit next Monday evening at Buffum's Hall, under the patronage of the Captain and officers of the Resaca. The fine play of "East Lynne" will be presented with "A Tempest in a Tea Pot." Seats can be ecured at Mr. Thrum's.

orhood was refreshed with copious showers, that were much needed, for the dust had become so troublesome as to be the subject of a newspaper item. As we are just about at the equinoxial season, a change in the weather will be appropriate. Masonic .- The Maui Lodge, U. D., F. & A. M.

CRUELTY TO ANIMALS -- We have received a comsunication from "A Passenger on the Kilmen," stating that there is a good deal of unnecessary cruelty exercised towards animals on freight by the rew of the steamer. The total number of patients at present in the Hospital is 93, viz.: 43 males and 31 females, (Hawaiians,) and 18 males and 1 female (foreigners-10 paying.) The total number of admissions has been 96; of these, 54 were males, and 24 females (Hawaiian,) and 17 males and 1 female (foreigners.

was 96, the smallest, 68. During this period there have been 6 deaths, all males, 3 natives and 3 foreigners: 2 from disease of hip joint, I from typhoid fever, I fracture of skull. (accident.) I from debility, and I Bright's disease of the kidneys. The operations: I ampu-tation of the leg. 5 removal of tumors. I fistula in ano, and a number of minor operations.

A well ventilated and suitable ward has been fitted up in one of the out buildings for the indigent foreigners so long resident in the Hospital. This arrangement is much more convenient for them, as some of them are unable to go up and down stairs, besides giving more room in the main building. Owing to the number of applications for admission, it has become necessary to purchase more iron bedsteads, and most of the wards are now fully furnished with them. It is very gratifying to find that the natives all over the group are beginning to realize at last the benefits of the Queen's Hespital; in connection with which I may remark that a very large proportion of the patients has been from the other Islands, all of whom seem to esteem it a privilege to gain admission into the institution. The new pipes give a much better supply of Wal, Wai, Buru, Wayar, Malay.

rived from the Malay; but the Hawsiian has little or no relationship to Malay proper. The Malays are moderns in Malaysia. You must look to the Kawi, the dead tongue of Java; and to the Sundese, Timorese and Moluccans, for the sources of Hawaiian,

Tahitian and Maori languages. I believe that we shall find the root of every genuine Hawaiian word; not in modern Malay, but in some ancient or recondite tongue of the great archipelage. Let us notice a few examples in support of this belief. Kai, the sea, is last in Malay; not much alike; but in the Moluccas, it is kahi; and chai in the Sandese tongue. Again, manu, a bird, does not resemble the Malay burung, but the Javan word ma-nuca, is almost the same. Kanaka, man, is orang in Malay, but tamata in the Molaccas; and the Malay perampuan for woman is bini, fineh, and wewina in he olden tongues-so much like our wahine. But I need not cite more instances to show that the relationship of the Hawaiisa with the Malay is slight

If a native of Java, or of Timor, Bali, or Sum-bawa, or of Celebes, Ternate, or Waigiou, should walk the streets of Honolulu in our costume, he would not be noticeable as being any other than one brown races. I have heard Dr. Hillebrand say, who visited Java, that Javans would be undistinguishable amongst our native people. Now if such an identity of race exists, as I believe to be the case, then here we have the stock to revivify and infuse fresh blood into our scrofulous, decaying race; because as all breeders know, we must restore and improve decay-
